Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claims 1-2 and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention.

The address decoder as recited in claims 1-2 and 4 are not understood because Fig. 8 of the present invention does not receive any address input signal. The specification also does not specifically describe that the input signals x1 and x2_n received at input terminals 802 and 803, respective, are address signals.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Art Unit: 2818

4. Claims 1-2 and 4 are, insofar as understood, rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Becker et al., 5,886,929.

Becker et al., 5,886,929, discloses in Fig. 2 a high speed addressing buffer circuit comprising:

a synchronous portion comprising high speed latch 210 which is receiving and responding to system clock (SCLK);

an asynchronous portion coupled to output terminal 203 for the word lines of memory cell such as shown in Fig. 1 Prior Art;

feedback-resetting portion comprising: output feedback inverters 204 and 206 and power-up select unit 202a, set enable and disable unit 202b;

asynchronous reset signal RESET 224.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 6-10 and 12-16 are allowed.

6. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The decoder in a memory module as recited in claims 6-10 and 12-16 has not been found in the prior art.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Art Unit: 2818

Conclusion

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
